Perseverance to achieve despite all odds that life throws at us. Shalini is an example of how to pursue each dream, motivate women and empower youth.

She spoke with the youth in India on various topics and answered their questions. Shalini emphasized on “Career as a Journey” and the positive thinking process of graduating from academic world and enter a career path in corporate life.

Shalini answered questions on how to take each day as it comes and “Be the best” wherever you are placed. This key to success opens many doors that we have never imagined

Shalini also spoke about healthcare ecosystem and digitization in India using data inter operability, Artificial intelligence and personalized healthcare

There were questions on how to balance career aspirations and passions outside of work life. Self actualization being a topic that she is promoting with youth and in all her speeches

On a lighter note, Shalini was questioned on entering Bollywood after winning the crown as “Mrs India USA”, to which she answered that she is inspired by the thought and will wait for the right opportunity. Laughter....

In New York, Shalini emphasized on the unlimited dreams that every student has and how to make it a success. Giving your whole self to current career path starts to attract right opportunities that we may assume were never for us.

Shalini represents the first woman living her family’s dream to be an economics graduate, MBA, corporate leader, public speaker, fitness coach, inventor, commercial model, super mom, globetrotter & now proudly Mrs India USA 2022.

In Mar 2022, She was featured on Times Square billboard as a “role model” depicting many aspects of life- Corporate leadership, fitness, spirituality, Mrs India USA, motivational speaker and a Mom.

She was awarded twice “Distinguished alumni “by Sri Venkateswara college, Delhi university where she studies her undergraduate in Economics and then her MBA alma mater -Amity University, NYC.

She is on Radio and TV shows, Universities and corporates as a Motivational speaker. She believes that she can inspire others through her journey – Confidence, empowerment to live each dream of yours and believe in yourself

Shalini is the founder of “Better our best “. To live a wholesome life and be present as “everything that one carries”, Shalini is promoting the concept of SELF ACTUALIZATION- You can live your full potential. If you were ever told you have no seat on the table-You can own the table. If you think you cannot do it, let us ‘break mental barriers’

In the journey of life, Shalini realized there is never a good time to live one’s passion and dreams. She believes that You Can -If You think you can. Her life can be summed up with the quote-“If opportunity does not knock your door, BUILD THE DOOR”
